

Dear Devotees,

In order to educate the next generation of devotees, the Sri Venkateswara Swami Temple inaugurated a series of classes on the day of Sri Vidya Ganapati Puja. Listed below, the classes meet on the second and fourth Sundays of each month from September 2009 to May of 2010. The exception is the Religion class which meets throughout the year. The courses are intended for young devotees from the ages of 6 to 18. Although classes started in September, most courses are still accepting late registrations. Students who register late will receive all course materials; however, they will be expected to catch up with the class. The tuition fee for taking only the religion class is $10 per child. A tuition fee of $50 per child will entitle the student to take as many languages, religion, or Ramayana/Mahabharata classes as he/she may want. Registration requires the completion of a form and payment of fees at the Temple office or to one of the Youth Committee members. Tuition payments are not refundable. The location of classes may change in order to accommodate other activities in the Temple. For more information about the courses, please contact the Youth Committee Chairs:
